CONSENT DECREE

Respondent Morgan Martin Boyer (“Respondent Boyer”), Respondent Jeannene Renee Marconi (“Respondent Marconi”), and the West Virginia Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) enter into the following Consent Decree for the purpose of resolving the above-styled complaint. As reflected in this Consent Decree, the parties have reached an agreement in which each Respondent agrees and stipulates to the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and disposition of this matter. The Commission, having approved such agreement, does hereby Find and Order as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent Boyer is a licensed real estate salesperson in the State of West Virginia.
2. Respondent Marconi is a licensed real estate broker in the State of West Virginia.

3. At all times relevant, Respondent Marconi served as the broker for Hunt Country Real Estate, LLC, in Leesburg, Virginia. Respondent Boyer, at all times relevant, practiced as a salesperson under Respondent Marconi's supervision.

4. Real estate licenses must be renewed annually, on or before June 30.

5. Respondent Boyer failed to renew her license on active status on or before June 30, 2025, for the 2026 licensure year. Thus, her license expired on July 1, 2025.

6. Respondent Boyer continued to engage in the practice of real estate in this state while her license was in expired status.

7. On February 17, 2026, the Commission initiated the present complaint against Respondents.

8. Respondent Boyer submitted a written response on behalf of respondents on February 17, 2026, acknowledging that the failure to renew her license was an oversight.

9. At its March 18, 2026, meeting, the Commission determined there was probable cause to conclude that both Respondents violated the West Virginia Real Estate License Act and authorized the proposal of a consent decree to informally resolve the matter.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Pursuant to the West Virginia Real Estate License Act, West Virginia Code § 30-40-1, et seq., the Commission is charged with the regulation of the practice of real estate brokerage in this State, and, thus, has jurisdiction over this Formal Complaint.

suspension; restitution; additional education; denial of future license; downgrade of license; reprimand; and/or the return of compensation collected from an injured consumer.

3. West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(19) authorizes the Commission to sanction a licensee if the licensee “[v]iolates any of the provisions of the West Virginia Real Estate License Act], any rule or order or final decision issued by the commission.” West Virginia Code § 30-40-17(a)(5) mandates that a real estate broker “[m]aintain in his or her custody and control the license of each associate broker and salesperson employed by him or her[.]”

4. West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(23) authorizes the Commission to sanction a licensee if the licensee “[c]ontinues in the capacity of or accepts the services of any broker, associate broker, or salesperson who is not properly licensed[.]”

5. Also, with respect to a broker, West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(30) authorizes the Commission to sanction a licensee if the licensee “[f]ails to adequately supervise all associate brokers and salespersons employed by him or her[.]”

6. By allowing Respondent Boyer to continue practicing real estate while her license was expired, Respondent Marconi violated West Virginia Code §§ 30-40-17(a)(5), 30-40-19(a)(23), and 30-40-19(a)(30).

7. Respondent Boyer violated West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(23) by continuing in the capacity of a salesperson while not properly licensed to do so.
