Licensed Real Estate Salesperson
License No. WV-0030071

Respondent.

CONSENT DECREE

Respondent Misty Dawn Eskew (“Respondent”), and the West Virginia Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) enter into the following Consent Decree for the purpose of resolving the above-styled complaint. As reflected in this Consent Decree, the parties have reached an agreement in which Respondent agrees and stipulates to the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and disposition of this matter. The Commission, having approved such agreement, does hereby Find and Order as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent is a licensed real estate salesperson in the State of West Virginia, holding license number WV-0030071. Respondent is licensed with Infinity Realty, LLC (“Infinity”). Infinity’s broker of record is William R. Melton.

2. Respondent is the owner of Infinity and operates the company from her residence is Saint Albans, West Virginia. Respondent is the only person licensed with Infinity under Mr. Melton's supervision.

3. On August 2, 2019, Commission Investigator Heather Casdorph conducted a compliance audit of Infinity. Respondent was present; Mr. Melton was not. Ms. Casdorph discovered that Mr. Melton had established two bank accounts for Infinity: (1) an Operating account, which was used for security deposits and rental receipts; and (2) a Sales account, which was used for earnest money deposits related to sales and deposits of earned sales commissions.

4. During the audit, Respondent stated that her computer system had recently crashed and she was unable to provide accurate trust account records for Ms. Casdorph to review. Ms. Casdorph gave Respondent two weeks to provide the records, and scheduled a follow-up visit for August 16, 2019.

5. To ensure that Respondent and Mr. Melton would be prepared for the August 16, audit, Ms. Casdorph emailed them on August 6, and listed all of the trust account information she expected them to provide.

6. Respondent and Mr. Melton were present for the August 16, audit. However, neither Respondent nor Mr. Melton could provide correct Trust Forms; neither Respondent nor Mr. Melton could provide records for a Security Trust Account; and neither Respondent nor Mr. Melton could provide records for a Rental Trust Account.

7. Respondent and Mr. Melton agreed to provide Rental Trust Account records by Monday, August 19, and accurate records for the Security Trust Account by noon on Tuesday, August 20.

8. On August 23, Respondent sent Ms. Casdorph corrected Trust Forms. However, neither Respondent nor Mr. Melton provided accurate and balanced trust account records to the Commission by the Commission's October 9, 2019, meeting.

9. On October 16, 2019, the Commission initiated Formal Complaint C-20-006 against both Respondent and Mr. Melton.

10. On November 7, 2019, Respondent submitted a letter in response to the Formal Complaint, but failed to not only respond to any of the allegations against her, but also failed to provide any of the requested trust account records. Instead, Respondent requested permission to provide the Commission with the trust account documents that Ms. Casdorph had repeatedly requested since August 2, 2019. The Commission need not grant a licensee permission to provide documents that Commission staff has requested through a compliance audit.

11. Mr. Melton submitted a separate response to the Commission on November 15, 2019. Generally, Mr. Melton stated that Respondent led him to believe that she had provided Ms. Casdorph with all of the required trust account records; acknowledged his error by failing to inspect Infinity's trust records; and acknowledged that he improperly allowed Respondent to act as broker for Infinity.

12. On December 2, 2019, Ms. Casdorph emailed Respondent and Mr. Melton to remind them that neither of them had provided complete and accurate trust account records and to advise them that that the matter would be on the Commission's December 18, 2019, meeting agenda. Ms. Casdorph again provided a detailed listing of the information she was requesting.

13. On December 3 and December 16, Mr. Melton emailed Ms. Casdorph and detailed his unsuccessful attempts to contact Respondent regarding the requested trust account records.

14. On December 18, prior to the Commission's meeting, Respondent emailed Ms. Casdorph information related to the Security Trust account, which was inaccurate and not reconciled. Despite Ms. Casdorph's request, Respondent still provided no records for the Rental Trust account.

15. At its regular meeting on December 18, the Commission considered all of the information received on the matter and determined that there was probable cause to conclude that Respondent's and Mr. Melton's above-referenced conduct violated the West Virginia Real Estate License Act.
