Re: W.Va. Real Estate Commission v. Conaway and Weber
Formal Complaint No. C-22-019

Dear Mr. Smith:

As you may recall, I am counsel to the West Virginia Real Estate Commission and assist with the handling of its Formal Complaints. The Commission previously determined that probable cause exists to conclude that your clients' conduct in the above-referenced complaints violated the West Virginia Real Estate License Act. However, in order to resolve the complaint without proceeding through the formal hearing process, the Commission has authorized me to offer the enclosed Consent Decree.

You will find that the Consent Decree contains specific findings, as well as an agreed-to resolution. Please review the Consent Decree with your clients, and, if acceptable, have them sign and return it to the Commission no later than twenty (20) days from receipt of this correspondence. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (304) 558-8989.

Sincerely,

CONSENT DECREE

Respondent Joshua Michael Conaway (“Respondent Conaway”), Respondent Andrew Daniel Weber (“Respondent Weber”), and the West Virginia Real Estate Commission (“Commission”) enter into the following Consent Decree for the purpose of resolving the above-styled complaint. As reflected in this Consent Decree, the parties have reached an agreement in which each Respondent agrees and stipulates to the Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and disposition of this matter. The Commission, having approved such agreement, does hereby Find and Order as follows:

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. Respondent Conaway is a licensed real estate broker in the State of West Virginia, holding license number WVB210300669.

2. Respondent Weber is a licensed real estate salesperson in the State of West Virginia, holding license number WV-0028465.

3. At all times relevant, Respondent Conaway served as the responsible broker for Respondent Weber at First Property Solutions, LLC dba West Virginia Property Management, located in Beaver, West Virginia.

4. Real estate licenses must be renewed annually, on or before June 30.

5. Respondent Weber failed to properly renew his license on active status on or before June 30, 2021, for the 2022 licensure year. Thus, his license expired on July 1, 2021, and, remained on expired status until September 26, 2021, when the license was renewed on active status.

6. The Commission requested that respondents submit information for any listings and sales that Respondent Weber handled during the period that his license was expired. On information and belief, Mr. Weber did not receive commission from any real estate transaction during his time on expired status but he did perform the duties of a salesperson by maintaining active listings.

7. On November 2, 2021, the Commission initiated the present complaint against respondents.

8. Respondents' attorney, Clyde A. Smith, Jr., submitted a written response to the Commission on December 2, 2021. The response stated that Respondent Weber did take one action during the time that his license was expired that led to the listing and sale of a property, which closed after Respondent Weber's license was renewed on active status.

9. At its regularly-scheduled meeting on December 15, 2021, the Commission determined there was probable cause to conclude that both respondents violated the West Virginia

Real Estate License Act, but authorized the proposal of a consent decree to informally resolve the matter.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Pursuant to the West Virginia Real Estate License Act, West Virginia Code § 30-40-1, et seq., the Commission is charged with the regulation of the practice of real estate brokerage in this State, and, thus, has jurisdiction over this Formal Complaint.

In relevant part, West Virginia Code § 30-40-7(l) authorizes the Commission to impose sanctions for violations of the West Virginia Real Estate License Act, including, but not limited to, an administrative fine not to exceed $1,000 per day per violation; probation; revocation; suspension; restitution; additional education; denial of future license; downgrade of license; reprimand; and/or the return of compensation collected from an injured consumer.

3. West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(19) authorizes the Commission to sanction a licensee if the licensee “[v]iolates any of the provisions of the West Virginia Real Estate License Act], any rule or order or final decision issued by the commission.” West Virginia Code § 30-40-17(a)(5) mandates that a real estate broker “[m]aintain in his or her custody and control the license of each associate broker and salesperson employed by him or her[.]”

4. West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(23) authorizes the Commission to sanction a licensee if the licensee “[c]ontinues in the capacity of or accepts the services of any broker, associate broker, or salesperson who is not properly licensed[.]”

5. Also with respect to a broker, West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(30) authorizes the Commission to sanction a licensee if the licensee “[f]ails to adequately supervise all associate brokers and salespersons employed by him or her[.]”

6. By allowing Respondent Weber to practice real estate while his license was expired, Respondent Conaway violated West Virginia Code §§ 30-40-19(a)(23) and 30-40-19(a)(30).

7. Respondent Weber violated West Virginia Code § 30-40-19(a)(23) by continuing in the capacity of a salesperson while not properly licensed to do so.
