The West Virginia Real Estate License Act (WV Code §30-40) provides that no broker's license shall be issued in the name of a corporation, association or partnership except through one of its members or officers. In addition, the Act requires every partnership, association, corporation or other form of business organization engaging in the real estate brokerage business to delegate full authority to the person holding the broker's license on behalf of the business organization, and the designated broker must be responsible for the acts of the business and must have been delegated full authority to conduct the real estate brokerage activities of the business organization.
